

An Introduction to Family History Research for Seniors

Many people say that the key to a person's future is understanding their past. So to help you start your own family history journey Caloundra Family History is holding an introduction to family history research for seniors.

This event is being held in conjunction with the Council on the Ageing, COTA and in celebration of Seniors Month in October 2022.

When:

October 28th and 29th,
a day and a half course.

Cost:

$20.00 for the full course
plus morning & afternoon
teas and lunch will be provided.

Where:

Caloundra Family History Rooms,
Corbould Park,
Gate 2, Pierce Avenue,
Meridian Plains QLD 4551
Plenty of parking

Course details:

These training sessions break down the daunting task of where to begin, into manageable bite-sized pieces.

On Day One, we will explore what type of information you may need. We delve into the types of digital records that are available in genealogy programs, various archives, libraries, newspapers, military records and an overview of the resources that CFHR offers in its rooms.

Day Two starts at 1:00 pm. We will break into two groups. Each group will have a chance to explore their family history on our computers and view short videos.

Would you like to leave your family a unique, priceless treasure? It's easy. Leave them the legacy of your family history. We look forward to meeting you.

Check out our website to register and for more information.

www.caloundrafamilyhistory.org.au